Order of Saint George Polo Match

The Order of St. George will be hosting a Polo Match on Sunday, October 15, 2017 from 1:00 - 5:00, at the Chukkar Farm Polo Club & Event Facility, 1140 Liberty Grove Road in Alpharetta, Georgia. Former Gov. Roy Barnes has been invited to open the Polo Match. This fun event will include music, lunch, ladies hat competition, silent auction and more. Consular representatives from Britain, Canada, Jamaica and Belize have been invited as well. Tickets are available to the general public and may be purchased online at:

The Order of St. George focuses on supporting direct work with current and former disabled military personnel, and Middle Eastern refugees including Christian communities suffering religious persecution. The Order is an organization with Special Consultative Status with the United Nations Economic & Social Council.

This event is to raise funds for the Order's national and international humanitarian projects. Domestic projects supported include charitable organizations in support of our veterans such as the Green Beret Foundation, Seal Dog Foundation and the Horse and Warriors organization. International projects include patron status of the Princess of Wales Royal Regiment, the Royal Hospital Chelsea, a volunteer ambulance service in Belize, donating prosthetics limbs in Jamaica, and delivering medical care and services to refugees victimized by the war in Northern Iraq against ISIS.

The Order of Saint George is a worldwide organization with its international headquarters located in London England; its North American Grand Commandery headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia. The Order's North America members hail from all over the USA; and in the countries of Belize, Canada and Jamaica.
